Headteacher's Update

Dear Northwood Community,

What an absolutely wonderful week we've had here at Northwood Community Primary School! I'm delighted to share some fantastic news and celebrations with you all. Last Tuesday, we had the privilege of taking a group of our Year 4 pupils to the Eco-Garden for a very special visit focused on refugees, marking Refugee Week. It was such a meaningful experience for our children, and I was incredibly proud of how thoughtfully they engaged with this important topic. These moments really showcase the compassionate and globally-minded young people we're nurturing here at Northwood.

I'm absolutely thrilled to announce that Evie in Year 6 has achieved something truly remarkable - she picked up the Cultural Achievement Award at the Knowsley Education Awards last Wednesday. What an incredible honour! Evie's dedication and talent have been recognised at the highest level, and we couldn't be more proud of her outstanding achievement.

This week has also seen Into University working with our Year 4 pupils, providing them with inspiring opportunities and experiences that will undoubtedly spark their aspirations for the future. It's always exciting to see our children's horizons being broadened in this way.

Looking ahead to next week, I wanted to let you know that this coming Monday we'll be welcoming an author to school during assembly time. These visits are always such a treat for our pupils, inspiring their love of reading and writing whilst bringing stories to life in the most wonderful way.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support. It's weeks like this that remind me just how lucky we are to be part of such an amazing school community, where our children consistently demonstrate their talents, kindness, and determination.

Warmest regards,

Ms Murphy
Head Teacher
